

From: The AAG for Administration <The.AAG.for.Administration@usdoj.gov>

Sent: Monday, June 9, 2025 12:08 PM

To: The AAG for Administration <The.AAG.for.Administration@usdoj.gov>

Subject: Notice to DOJ Commercial Vendors: Permanent Injunction - Jenner & Block LLP v. U.S. Department of Justice, 25-cv-916 (D.D.C.)

Notice to DOJ Commercial Vendors: Permanent Injunction - Jenner & Block LLP v. U.S. Department of Justice, 25-cv-916
(D.D.C.)

On March 25, 2025, President Donald J. Trump signed Executive Order 14246, “Addressing Risks from Jenner & Block,” 90 Fed. Reg. 13997 (Mar. 28, 2025). On May 23, 2025, U.S. District Court Judge John D. Bates ruled that Executive Order 14246 is unlawful, null, and void and permanently enjoined certain agency defendants, including the Department of Justice, from implementing Executive Order 14246. The Court’s order is attached.

Accordingly, all steps must be taken to disregard Executive Order 14246, including all prior formal or informal advice, opinions, or direction previously received or communicated to effectuate, implement, or enforce Executive Order 14246; should carry on with their ordinary course of business with Jenner & Block LLP, its personnel, its clients, and its clients’ personnel known or believed by them to be associated with Jenner & Block LLP, as if Executive Order 14246 had not issued; and must take such other steps as are necessary to prevent the implementation of Executive Order 14246 and to reverse any implementation or enforcement of Executive Order 14246 that has occurred or is occurring.

The position of the Executive Branch is that issuance of Executive Order 14246 was lawful and implementing its directives permissible, and the Department is reviewing all potential avenues of appeal of the Court’s order. Until such time as the Court’s erroneous order is overturned, it is important that the Department comply with the terms of the Court’s order as any failure to do so may result in penalty of contempt.

Please contact your Office of General Counsel or your contracting officer, as appropriate, with any questions regarding carrying out and complying with the Court’s order. Your cooperation is appreciated.

Assistant Attorney General for Administration
U.S. Department of Justice

